WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—All doubt as to the President's decision to endorse suffrage as a State issue in the forthcoming election in New Jersey was virtually removed today when Secretary Maddoo announced that he intended to vote for the suffrage amendment to the New York Constitution.

The announcement of the Secretary following so closely upon that of Secretary Garrison and Private Secretary Tamm, that they intended to support the equal suffrage amendment in New Jersey is regarded as making it practically certain that Mr. Wilson will soon be enrolled as an advocate of granting the vote to women by the States.

Only remains now for Mr. Grayson to give his approval to complete the list of the President's close friends who endorse suffrage.

Secretary Redfield and Secretary of Labor Wilson have also declared in favor of suffrage in their respective States.

It was said at the White House today that the President will issue a statement about October 12 setting forth how he will vote in the suffrage election in New Jersey. Here is Mr. Maddoo's statement.

"I shall vote for the woman suffrage amendment to the New York State Constitution. Women are an economic factor of constantly increasing importance in organized society. In business and industrial life they have been forced to play a larger and more conspicuous part than ever before in the world's history.

"They have met these new demands and responsibilities with an amount of their higher and paramount duties to society. I am sure that all the theoretical objections against their exercise of the right of suffrage will prove as groundless as were the earlier objections of the same sort to their larger participation in the business and industrial life of the nation.

"The right to vote may, and I hope will strengthen the power of women to insist in bringing about many social and moral reforms which will benefit equally if not more vitally, interested than men. Suffrage may give them the opportunity of contributing notably to the progress of civilization and the advancement of the general welfare.

"As the weaker sex, women are entitled to at least an equal opportunity with the stronger sex, and especially in all that intimately concerns the welfare of both.

"The American women have made a fine fight and a fair fight for suffrage and they are entitled to the reason and intelligence of the country and have not adopted militant methods. They have also taken the moral course in resorting to each State for action upon a question so peculiarly within the province of the States themselves."

Mrs. Maud Allan, who delivered a suffrage speech here last night, went to the White House this morning to express to President Wilson the hope that he will vote for suffrage in his home State. The President received her courteously but did not declare himself.

It became known today that the choir on at the synagogues of the city, which members of the choir had been asked to sing at the services, the rest of the choir is taking seats in the pews. There is friction between the choir and the congregation. The choir is backing him. Neither he nor Mr. Bennett would discuss the trouble, but some of the older members say they intend that the whole matter shall be aired.

READ A RILEY POEM ON WHITCOMB RILEY'S DAY

Secretary Lane Proposes Tribute in Nation's Schools to Hoosier Poet.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Secretary of the Interior Lane has written to the superintendents of schools in the several States, suggesting that one of James Whitcomb Riley's poems be read in each school on October 7, the anniversary of Mr. Riley's birth.

He suggested that the schools should read the last two stanzas of a poem which he called "The Hoosier Poet." The poem is a tribute to the life and work of the poet, and is a fitting tribute to the life and work of the poet.

Riley Day was proclaimed in the State of Indiana by Gov. Ralston early last month "in honor of Indiana's most beloved citizen." Appropriate exercises were urged in the schools and other public meeting places and the display of American flags. Local celebrations of the poet's birthday have taken place previously, notably in 1913, when a parade of schoolchildren marched to his home.

Mr. Riley will be 66 years old on Thursday. He was born in Hancock county, Indiana, and has lived in and written of the people of that State practically all of his life.

Auto Victim Sues R. Vanderbilt.

Plays and Players.

E. A. Well has accepted "The Beautiful Virgin" by Harry Dunbar for production in the fall at the Lyceum Theatre. The play is a drama in three acts, and is a fitting tribute to the life and work of the poet.

WAR SWAYS N. Y. DEATH RATE.

Fluctuation in Immigration and Emigration Responsible.

Fluctuation in immigration and emigration, due to the European war, is the chief reason for the increase in the death rate in New York City, according to statistics compiled by the Health Department, has been greatly responsible for the increase in the death rate this year in comparison with the same period last year. There have been seventy-seven more deaths in the city this year than last, but forty of these have been accounted for by the increase in the population.

Diseases responsible for the increased mortality are whooping cough, heart disease and pneumonia, and influenza. There is a decrease, however, in the mortality caused by diphtheria, bronchitis and diseases of the nervous system.

BROADWAY IN USE AGAIN.

Cars Crawl Over New Subway; Vehicles May Do So Today.

Trolley cars moved up and down Broadway between Thirty-seventh and Thirty-ninth streets yesterday for the first time since the subway collapse of September 25. They traveled at snail's pace and 100 yards apart, so that the temporary closure, which supports the tracks, bore the weight of only one car at a time. No passengers were allowed to get on or off between the two streets.

The pavement on the east side of Broadway has been so strengthened that vehicles will be allowed to use it beginning today. No date for the resumption of traffic on the other side has been set.
